DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 7 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claim 7 has not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1, 4 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takai (US 2003/0059618).

Regarding claims 1 and 8: Takai teaches a composition comprising an epoxy resin composition and a cationic polymerization initiator (paras. 35-36). The composition comprises 10-100 parts by weight of an alicyclic epoxy compound which has no ester groups (formula (I)), and 0 to 90 parts by weight of another epoxy compound. This overlaps the claimed percentages of the ester-free alicyclic epoxy compound and the other epoxy compound. Also disclosed is the cationic polymerization initiator in an amount of 0.05-5 parts by weight to 100 parts by weight of the epoxy resin (para. 86), which overlaps the claimed range (paras. 35-36). Takai further teaches a compound of a copolymer having at least one glycidyl group and/or alicyclic epoxy group in the molecule in an amount of 1-50 parts by weight to 100 parts by weight of the sum of the two epoxy compounds (para. 36). The copolymer contains glycidyl acrylate monomers, which makes it an acrylic resin (para. 135). Takai further teaches the copolymer containing glycidyl acrylate monomers also contains hydroxyethyl acrylate, which would give the copolymer hydroxyl groups (para. 137).

Regarding claim 4: Takai teaches the compound:

[0036] (wherein X represents a divalent group selected from oxygen atom, sulfur atom, $-\text{SO}_2-$, $-\text{SO}_2-$, $-\text{CH}_2-$, $-\text{C}(\text{CH}_3)_2-$, $-\text{CBr}_2-$, $-\text{C}(\text{CBr}_3)_2-$, $-\text{C}(\text{CF}_3)_2-$, $-\text{C}(\text{CCl}_3)_2-$ and $-\text{CH}(\text{C}_6\text{H}_5)-$, or a single bond linking two alicyclic rings; and R^1 to R^{18} are the same or different and each represents hydrogen atom, halogen atom, a hydrocarbon group which may contain oxygen atom or halogen atom, and an alkoxy group which may have substituent groups); 0 to 90 parts by weight of a X can be a single bond (paras. 35-36).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on June 18th and July 15th have been fully considered but they are not persuasive, because:

A) Applicant's argument that Takai does not disclose using an acrylic resin having both epoxy groups and hydroxyl groups is not persuasive. The copolymer (F) taught in Takai is a copolymer of acrylate monomers. Acrylate monomers, when polymerized, become acrylic resins. One monomer has an epoxy group, such as glycidyl acrylate (para. 135). When polymerized, the epoxy group remains unreacted so that the final polymer has pendant epoxy groups along the polymer backbone.

Similarly, a hydroxyl functional monomer is also reacted such as hydroxyethyl acrylate (para. 137). This monomer also polymerizes along the double bond of the acrylate group leaving the hydroxyl functional moiety unreacted and pendant along the polymer backbone. Therefore, an acrylic resin containing glycidyl/epoxy groups and hydroxyl groups is disclosed.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
